Kelli Ganz

Kelli was born in Washington, D.C., grew up in Erie, PA and her family moved to Morgantown, WV 7 years ago. She passed the New York and Massachusetts Bar in 2014 and was clerking for a federal judge before coming to CPCS. Kelli will be joining the Lawrence Office. Words that she lives by are "Every day may not be good, but there is good in every day!" Kelli is most proud of her ability to connect and get along with others. Her greatest regret is wasting time and stressing over things out of her control. Kelli's likes to spend time travelling to new places or visiting friends in different cities.

Ann Grant

Ann is originally from Stamford, CT and recently moved to New England after six years in New York City. She has been in practice for three years and will be joining the New Bedford Office. Important words to live by: "be the change you wish to see in the world" and "be the person your dog thinks you are." Ann is most proud of leaving corporate law to follow her passion for public defense . Her greatest regret is not moving away from NYC sooner (and not buying a snow blower). Ann enjoys travelling, reading watching movies, and spending time with family and friends.

Stefanie Grindle

Stefanie is from Wellesley, MA and graduated from Northeastern Law school. She has been practicing law for two and a half years. She will be joining the Fall River Office . Words that Stefanie lives by: "Ring the bells that still can ring / Forget your perfect offering / There is a crack in everything / That's how the light gets in." from "Anthem" by Leonard Cohen. The things that make her proudest are choosing wonderful people to be in her life and her occasional ability to speak truth to power. Stefanie enjoys scratching her housemate's cat, Teddy Bank North Garden and learning, particularly out loud with hair-raisingly brilliant people.

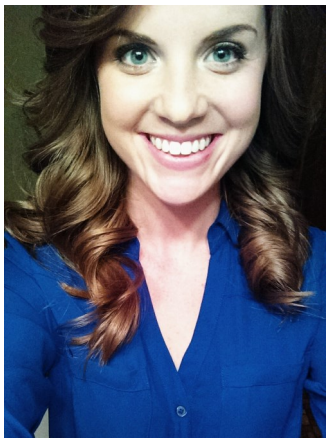

Eliza Lockhart-Jenks

Eliza is originally from Southern Maine, graduated from Law School last May and was sworn in in November 2014. She is joining the Quincy Office. Eliza's important words to live by: "I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. And I will not let what I cannot do interfere with what I can do." -Edward Everett Hale. Her greatest accomplishments include running a 10K, playing Hecuba in 'The Trojan Women' and being able to recite the states in alphabetical order. Eliza's greatest regret is that acting is not currently a part of her life. Eliza enjoys reading, watching junk television while eating junk food and listmaking.

Cara O'Donnell

Cara is originally from a suburb of Chicago, attended high school and college in Florida and has been in Boston for about 3 1/2 years. She currently lives in Somerville. Cara has been practicing law since November, 2014 and is joining the Worcester Office. Her important words to live by: "Respect everyone, love easily, smile often." Cara's greatest accomplishment is becoming the first lawyer in her family and her greatest regret is not ponying up the cash to see the Blackhawks win the Stanley Cup at TD Garden in 2013. Cara's favorite way to spend time is enjoying good food with interesting people.

Katherine Perry-Lorentz

Katie is from Boston, MA, graduated from Northeastern Law School in 2014 and passed the bar in November, 2014. Katie will be joining the Worcester Office. Katie's important words to live by, "All our dreams can come true if we have the courage to pursue them." -Walt Disney. The accomplishments that make her most proud are winning a 211,3 petition on a selective prosecution claim, running a 10k the weekend after the bar exam and becoming a sommelier. Katie's greatest regret is not realizing she wanted to be a lawyer sooner. In her spare time Katie enjoys playing games with friends; going to the gym; watching The West Wing on netflix with her cat, Emperor Kuzco, while drinking wine.
